Why Business Matters to God: (And What Still Needs to Be ...

For this reason and certainly many more, numerous Christians value business for its instrumental contributions to “morally elevated” occupations such as church, missionary, and nonprofit work. Business as Service. Van Duzer questions these assumptions in Why Business Matters to God.

Why Business Matters to God: And What Still Needs to Be ...

Business is a social construct and God cares a lot about how it is constructed. A theology of business needs to be sophisticated enough so that it can look at the structures/paradigms of business and hold them up against God's values. Where they are out of line we can call the way of business to a realignment with those values.
